On Watch Captures Purse in Roslyn Handicap From Captain Alcock in Impressive Style

Loft Colt Wins in Fast Time Despite Impost of 121 Pounds

Crack Three-Year-Old Beats Only Other Starter Over Heavy Track; Four Favorites Keep the Talent in Good Humor by Finishing First

By W. J. Macbeth

George W. Loft's On Watch won the Roslyn Handicap, the feature of yesterday's racing at Aqueduct, in most impressive style from the Quincy Stables' Captain Alcock, the only other starter. This good three-year-old colt, which had set a track record for a mile and a sixteenth on his last previous start, did not have to display record speed to dispose of Captain Alcock, but showed an excellent performance nevertheless. On Watch galloped the mile and a sixteenth in the very fine time of 1:44 4-5 under the heavy impost of 121 pounds.

It was a better effort than the mere time itself signifies. The track had not properly dried out and was very heavy near the rail. Consequently the horses kept well out on the track, horses kept well out on the track, which made the journeys longer than usual. Taking this circumstance into consideration, the performance of On Watch yesterday was almost as sensational as his record breaking race, as in addition to the longer route he carbial rine pounds more.

take your pick.

But when it came to racing On Watch was not to be denied. Mooney took the track with Captain Alcock shortly after the start and very wisely attempted to race the more heavily weighted favorite into the ground. Captain Alcock had plenty of early foot, but he was unable to lose On Watch for a second.

The bookmakers saw to it that the public had plenty of favorites in the closing event. The Red Stone Stable's Sporting Blood, which finished first, went to the post at 9 to 5. Maiden's Ballet, which was second, rose from 2 to 1 to 5 to 2, while the Waterbury pair, which finished third and fourth, were held at 8 to 5.

It will probably be some time again before so long a price is laid against On Watch as that which prevailed yesterday; that is when On Watch has no stiffer opposition than he encountered in Captain Alcock. The Quincy no stirer opposition than ne encoun-tered in Captain Alcock. The Quincy Stable connections believed Captain Alcock a moral certainty at the weights and bet accordingly. Captain Alcock

This three-year-old filly stood a hard discant head. C. H. Miller was off winging with Mile. Vivian and made every post a winning one. Tailor Maid, outrun early, closed with a great rush through the last furlong and would have won in a couple more strides. Lunetta, the favorite, was outrun from start to finish. Kummer, who had the mount, did not improve the favorite's chance by hugging the rail all the way. The going along the inside fence was particularly sticky and calculated to anchor a thoroughbred. Jefferson Livingston's five-year-old horse, Beaumaris, finally got out of the maiden class by winning the third, at six and a half furlongs. This prime favorite galloped all the way, led from beginning to end and was half a dozen lengths in front of Sir Clarence at the finish. Sir Clarence got up in the very last stride to nose out Le Gaulois for the place.

Carpentier Makes Good Showing; Nearly Drops One Sparring Partner

By W. O. McGeehan

Georges Carpentier, heavyweight champion of Europe, had his first public work-out in the United States at the Elks Club at Summit, N. J., yesterday in the presence of local critics. Carpentier did some vigorous boxing with Joe Jeannete, who kept him quite busy. Then he boxed with Young Joe Gans and Marcel Thomas, middleweights.

Ittle better overhead, a bit more severe and a little steadier, and polishes up his volleying in comparison with the rest of his game, he will be the greatest player that ever lived."

One of the game with the easts is a little more experience," said Sam Hardy, captain of the home grounds.

One of the radical changes the coach has made in the line-up is to place Brune, the old-time tackle, in the backfield. Brune showed up well here, and will probably be used as quarterback in the opening game. Bradley, who has had experience at Bucknell, has shown up to the coach's satisfaction, and is sure to get into the secondary defense.

PEERLESS 2 POWER EIGH

NOT BY VAUNTS, IS WON

WHETHER is be the race of life itself, or of a runner on the road, or of motor cars, victory comes to courage, strength and endurance,

Here at the Peerless factory we have tried to avoid a boasting and vaunting spirit. Driven by certain ideals of accomplishment, we have dug deep into the realms of mechanics, of chemistry, of physics, so that we might bring together in a motor car the qualities of vigor.

These lines of Lowell's:

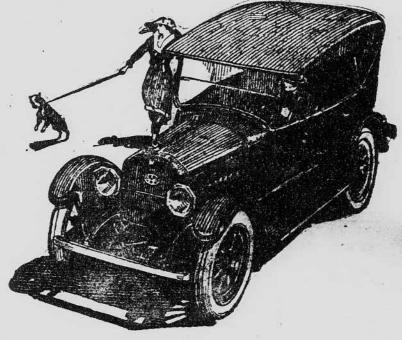

Endurance is the crowning, quality, And patience all the passion of great hearts."

Great, then, the heart of a motor car if into it have been built the gentleness of patience and the ruggedness of courage and fighting power.

Many years of work and waiting produced the Peerless Two-power-range Eight - too many years, indeed, to risk the disaster that comes from superlative talk, however warranted it may be in our own minds.

We believe in the Peerless Car. That others believe in it, also, is shown by the large percentage of owners who return to us for new cars and are glad to find that in the past five years we have not seen fit to change the fundamental principle upon which the first Two-power-range Eight was built.

These are the real rewards we have worked for. They are the real measure of our accomplishment.
